Medici Living Group Expands To Rotterdam

The world's largest co-living provider negotiates further suitable locations in the largest cities of the Netherlands

Berlin, 12 November 2017 – Medici Living Group, the world's largest co-living provider, is launching its brand medici living in Rotterdam. The first units are already available on the booking platform. The living concept focusses primarily on young professionals and students offering centrally located, furnished rooms for an all-inclusive-price covering WI-FI, all utilities and services. Medici Living Group entered the Dutch market in 2016. Its portfolio now adds up to about 100 units here. The company plans to further increase the number of units and to expand to other big Dutch cities soon.

"We see great potential for medici living in the Dutch market and we also plan to launch our new co-living-brand QUARTERS here in 2018", says Gunther Schmidt, Founder & CEO, Medici Living Group. "Therefore, we are negotiating with various partners multiple locations between 10.000 and 30.000 square metres in Amsterdam, Rotterdam, The Hague, Utrecht, Eindhoven and Groningen. We look forward to further expand in the Netherlands and to open our first QUARTERS building in the Netherlands soon."

Medici Living Group plans further growth of its global co-living community

Medici Living Group develops and runs innovative, digitized co-living spaces for different target groups and demands worldwide. In Berlin and New York, the company has already launched two houses of its new brand QUARTERS, a co-living-concept for creatives, young professionals and founders. Since its foundation in 2012, Medici Living Group has built up a portfolio of almost 1.300 units worldwide which are very well utilized with 96 percent on average. All living units are leased on a long-term-basis and get fully equipped for tenancy.
